

LLB (HONS) WITH ENGLISH LAW

Full-time 3 Years

On campus in Mauritius

Start Date: February & September

The LLB (Hons) with English Law is a Qualifying Law Degree for the purpose of practice in both England & Wales and Mauritius. It enables you to go on to the professional stages of legal training in the UK; either by way of the Bar Professional Training Course (BPTC) for barristers, or the Legal Practice Course (LPC) for those wishing to become a solicitor (for practice in England & Wales only). It is also recognised by the Council for Vocational Legal Education (CVLE) in Mauritius for admission onto the vocational examination conducted under the supervision of the CVLE.

The aim of the course is to offer the opportunity for intellectual development, to acquire fundamental legal and language knowledge for progression into the legal profession, the wider employment market or further study and to provide flexibility in developing specialised interests.

You will be taught by professionally experienced academics and practitioners and supported by a wealth of employability-enhancing opportunities that can ready you for a successful future legal career. Teaching will take place in modern classrooms with state-of-the-art equipment. At UCLan we also provide our students with extensive online resources and you will be supported on each module by a virtual learning environment.

Entry Requirements

Minimum 3 A-levels and 1 Subsidiary or 2 A-levels and 2 Subsidiaries or equivalent with 'O' level Maths and English grade C.

We operate a flexible admissions policy and treat everyone as an individual. This means that we will take into consideration your educational achievements and predicted grades (where applicable) together with your application as a whole, including work experience and personal statement.
